Sub: Honorable PM's Address to Young Voters on National Voter Day (25th Jan 2024) at 10.30am (Online)

Ref: Online meeting with Hon'ble Union Minister of Education Shri Dharmendra Pradhan ji on 19-01-2024, 4.00 pm.

As per the Direction of Central Education Ministry, Government of India, this is to inform you that the Honorable Prime Minister is addressing (Online) 50 Lakh + new Voters across 5000+ locations as a part of Namo Navamatadata Sammelan to the young voters (aged 18-25) on National Voter Day, which falls on 25th January 2024, at 10:30 AM. This address aims to encourage and engage the youth in the democratic process, fostering awareness about the significance of their role in shaping the nation's future.

In the light of this, you are requested to make necessary arrangements for students to listen the Prime Minister's address and actively participate in the interaction session.
Here are a few guidelines to facilitate the smooth conduct of this event:

- Arrangement for Viewing: Ensure that suitable arrangements are made for students to view the Prime Minister's address. This can be organized in common areas, auditoriums, or any space equipped with audio-visual facilities.

- Communication to Students: Inform all students about the scheduled address and emphasize its importance. Encourage them to attend the session and actively participate in the subsequent interaction.

- Interactive Session: Create a platform for students to interact with the Prime Minister. This could include a live Q&A session or submission of questions in advance. Ensure that this engagement is facilitated smoothly.

- Technical Support: Ensure that technical facilities such as projectors, screens, and sound systems are in working order. Conduct a test run in advance to avoid any technical glitches during the live address.

- Attendance Monitoring: Keep track of student attendance during the event. This information may be required for future reference.

- Post-Event Feedback: Collect feedback from students regarding their experience and any suggestions for improvement. This will help in enhancing future engagements.

participation among certain groups. While the event aimed to promote informed and active democratic participation, it revealed the need for more effective strategies to combat misinformation, increase engagement, and ensure inclusivity.

3. Rally

The election awareness rally was a dynamic event aiming to educate the public. It featured informative speeches, interactive sessions, and engaging activities. Despite some initial challenges with misinformation, the rally effectively increased voter understanding and engagement. The turnout exceeded expectations, indicating a positive impact on raising political awareness. Participants were enthusiastic and committed to promoting informed and active democratic participation, demonstrating the rally's success in fostering civic engagement.

4. Awareness Program (Through Videos)

The awareness program on election awareness through videos was a strategic initiative. A series of informative videos were produced, addressing key aspects of the electoral process and the importance of voting. Despite facing some distribution challenges, the videos reached a wide audience online, effectively raising awareness and understanding among viewers. Feedback was positive, indicating increased engagement and interest in civic participation. The video-based approach proved successful in educating the public and promoting active democratic involvement.

Date: 13/06/2024

Program: Seminar about Leadership Lessons from Ramayana

Venue: Sri. K Puttaswamy Auditorium, VKIT Campus

Person In-Charge: Dr. Mohan Babu V

No. of students participated: 150

Objective: To educate the NSS volunteers about their leadership responsibilities as depicted by the epic tale Ramayana.

Program Outcome: All the volunteers understood the significance and proper conduct of Rath Yatra.

Description:

On 13th June 2024, a seminar was conducted at our college for all NSS volunteers by Vijay Prabhuji. The session focused on leadership qualities essential for NSS volunteers. Vijay Prabhuji illustrated these qualities through the story of Hanuman from the epic Ramayana. He highlighted Hanuman's dedication, courage, and selflessness as exemplary traits for effective leadership. The seminar was both inspiring and educational, providing valuable insights into becoming better leaders in our community service endeavors.
